Principal's Report:

- EDAS is in progress. Bag painting was today.
- A couple students have attended district student council meetings ran by Jen Kennedy.
- National day for remembrance for violence against women is happening this week. Henderson teachers have decided to focus on sharing stories about powerful women and doing an activity honouring an important woman in your life.
- Henderson haircuts coming up, filled up quickly. We should offer them more often; parents are appreciating them.

- Next Wednesday December 13th, is a whole school read on a winter theme.
- Thursday December 14th Winter concert. After concert food prep will happen for Friday's turkey meal.
- December 15th turkey lunch. Learning reports go home. Crazy sweater day.
- Get new utensils for whole school events from food budget.
- Lots going on in the final week before holidays too. EDAS bag packaging and pick up. Winter Wonderland, PJ's and pancakes, etc.
- Overall things are feeling really good here.
