THIS IS YOUR PRINCIPAL SPEAKING

Halloween week is always a special kind of week. Between the excitement of dressing up, then the day for Parent Teacher Interviews, we are often find ourselves running to keep up with the daily tasks. A big thank you to the teachers and staff who continue to work hard to ensure students have a great time at school, as well as manage to squeeze valuable teaching time amongst the activities - their capacity never ceases to amaze me. Today Div 2 and 3 had an incredible opportunity to attend the 27th annual cross cultural day out in tišosəm (Sliammon) where students get to visit the fish hatchery as well as learn about culture in the tla'amin culture centre. It is an incredible experience for our grade 2-4 students. Please make a point to ask your child about their experience at the centre.

A big thank you to the parents who were able to come by the school this past Wednesday to check in with your teacher regarding your child's progress. If you were unable to meet with your teacher, please reach out to them and you can either receive a written update, or schedule a phone call. We are still a month away from our first term report cards, so still lots of time for growth prior to the first reporting period.

Lastly - please mark Wednesday Nov 8 at 5:30pm on your calendar! It is our first Family Dinner this year. We will be having a Spaghetti Dinner here in the gym. Entrance by donation, bring your families and friends. This is an excellent opportunity to sit and visit with others and to enjoy each other's company. See you then!! And, if you can help with the food, please let me know :)

AYAJUTHEM WORD OF THE WEEK

č̣eq̣ṭ - To Cheer - (che-k-t)

Emotions are funny things... we all have them, and throughout our lives we tend to experience each of them. When we get stuck behind someone is traffic, or are suddenly cut off, we generally feel angry, and respond in frustration - often coloring the car with exclamations of our frustration. When we see someone after a long absence, that rush of excitement often results in a smile, and a hug. In those time when we are excited for the accomplishments of others, or ourselves, often times we will č̣eq̣ṭ - an exclamation of happiness and joy. When was the last time you č̣eq̣ṭ for someone close to you? Celebrated in their success? May we each find opportunities č̣eq̣ṭ for the people that we love in our lives. Show a little love and appreciate, and č̣eq̣ṭ

HENDERSON READS

A Wrinkle in Time - The Graphic Novel

Madeleine L'Engle, Hope Larson

An adaptation of Madeleine L'Engle's science fiction classic, the graphic novel version of "A Wrinkle in Time," presents the timeless story in a colourful and easy-to-follow format. The novel's memorable characters travel through time, fighting the darkness and saving the universe, while also allowing readers to relate to the characters' struggles and contemplate the deeper meaning of their thoughts and words.
