
LIABILITY FOR PERSONAL BELONGINGS

Background

All personal belongings if kept or left on school premises are at the owners' risk.

Procedures

1. The District accepts no liability for the loss of belongings or possessions of any kind and of any value, either because of fire or other peril, or as a result of theft or mysterious disappearance while students are traveling to and from school, are on school premises, or are taking part in a school-related activity.
2. No District employee shall guarantee safekeeping of personal belongings.
