

GRADUATION FUNCTIONS – SECONDARY SCHOOLS

Background

The District recognizes the significance and importance of the official graduation ceremonies in which the students, parents, teachers, and the community participate with great pride.

The District encourages and supports the planning by students, staff, and school administration of the annual official graduation ceremonies.

Procedures

1. The Principal is authorized to organize and present the graduation ceremonies.
2. Unofficial activities are not sanctioned under this Administrative Procedure. With the exception of Dry After-Grad, the organization of such activities in school time or on school premises is prohibited.
3. The District supports the concept of “dry-grad” being organized as a community event, following the prom or graduation ceremony.
4. The District supports the use of community facilities for graduation events.
