
REVIEW OF FINAL ASSESSMENT

Background

Students and/or parents have a right to appeal the final assessment.

Procedures

1. The review process must include the following features.
 - 1.1 The prerequisite for any review will be a meeting between the student and/or their parents with the teacher who has assessed the student.
 - 1.2 Clear timelines for requesting, and holding, a review must be set.
 - 1.3 The student and/or parents must be heard during the review.
 - 1.4 The teacher who has assessed the student must be heard during the review.
 - 1.5 The Principal has the final authority to modify the final assessment.
2. All decisions made during the review, if they qualify, will be subject to appeal under Board Policy 13 - Appeals.
